Books, books, books... that's all many young penguins care about. We find that they are doing better in quizzes and tests. So, we encourage them to read more. We have asked the Penguin Build! Team to build a book club for penguins to read, borrow and exchange books with other members. It will cost 50 coins to join. There will be monthly book club meetings. The book club will be called Penguin Readers Club. The Penguin Readers Club website at www.prc.clubp will be launched in 30 April 2007. 🐟

Penguin Plush Toys

Little penguins need a good cuddle everyday. But, some penguin parents come home too late and their poor penguinlets will have no penguin to cuddle. Our special "Penguinlet Care" team have sewn these cute little penguin plush toys just for such occasions. Even penguinlets whose parents come home from work early can take these little toys to bed with them. They will be first found in Penguinlets 'R Us Toy Store. The cute plush toys will be launched in April 2007. Then on, cute plush toys rule! 🐟

New Puffle Food

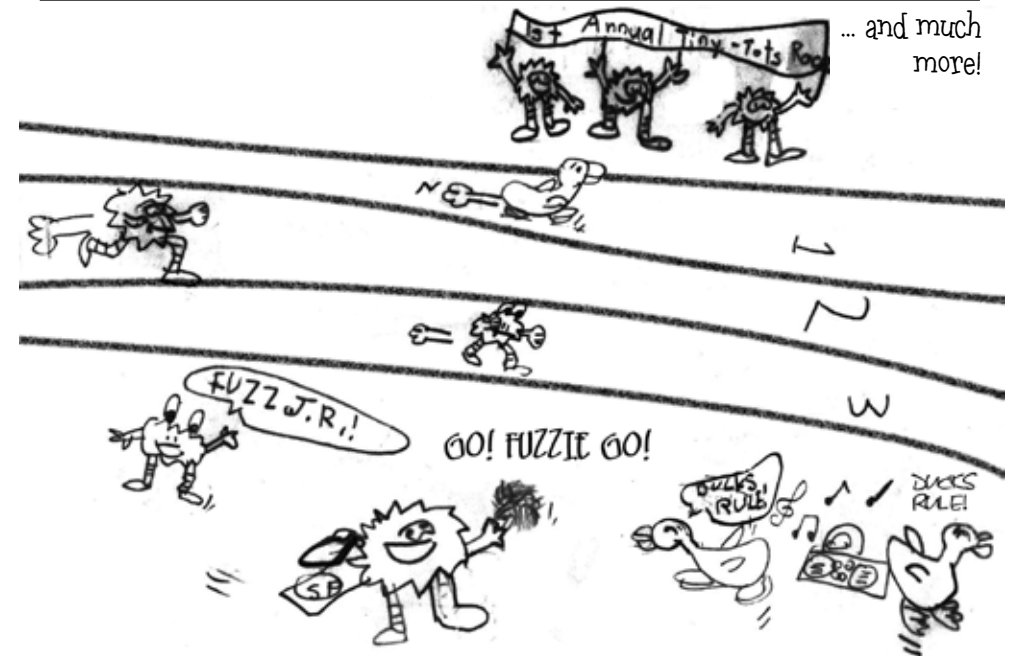

Puffles need a variety of vitamins. Scientists did a test on two groups of Puffles in January 2007 and found that the group of Puffles fed on the new puffle food, which contains many different vitamins, grew stronger than puffles fed on Puffle O's which has only Vitamins B4 and C5.

The test was repeated many times and the same results showed up. Our new puffle food is called "Puffy Puffs" and it contains ALL the vitamins a puffle needs. It will be first available at the Pet Shop and cost 30 coins for a 500g tin and 10 coins for 150g box. It will be available in April 2007. 🐟

Quackers is back!

Remember our old friend Quackers? His is back! Found singing and dancing in the Dogo, Quackers was wearing a pair of fuzzy bunny slippers. I have to admit that he looked quite silly. He was friendly and offered me a packet of fish! He will be staying in our guest bed in the office of The Penguin Weekly. He will be taking part in the 1st Annual Tiny-Tots Race. His friends, Ducky and Ducko will be coming too. 🐟

Vote for your favourite puffle picture!

Our puffles need a new look, but we could not decide which one to use. WE NEED YOUR HELP! Please VOTE for your favourite puffle. Email your choice of puffle to waddler98@gmail.com. The selected puffle will be announced in Issue 10. 🐟

P/S Super Puffle will stay the same.
